Borough of Seven Fields
Ordinance #50 (as amended)

An Ordinance of the Council of the Borough of Seven Fields, Butler County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, prohibiting the use of skate boards, in line skates, bicycles, and all other similar devices hereinafter referred to as skate boards, on real property owned by the Borough of Seven Fields.

WHEREAS, the use of skate boards in a certain manner on property owned by the Borough of Seven Fields, is deemed to be a safety hazard both to the participants and to the public in general; and

WHEREAS, the Borough Council of Seven Fields wishes to restrict the manner in which skate boards are used on property owned by the Borough;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordained and enacted by the Borough of Seven Fields, Butler County, Pennsylvania, as follow:

Section I

It shall be unlawful for ant person to use, ride, propel, or otherwise operate a skate board upon or in conjunction with ramps or other artificial and man made structures which are owned by the Borough or other persons and/or temporarily or permanently placed or erected upon Borough property for the use by, or used by, or can be used by, persons operating skate boards.

It shall be unlawful for any persons to construct or fabricate said ramps or other similar facilities and transport them on or to store them, for use upon, the property owned by the Borough.

The area in which the use of these ramps or other similar structures are prohibited include, but are not limited to, the following: the parking areas at the swimming pool and public park located on Castle Creek Drive, the sidewalks leading to the community center in said park, the playground area which includes the picnic shelter, and the playground equipment, and all of the sidewalks leading to and from the parking area and the swimming pool and the other above listed areas.

Section II

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined $25.00 for the first violation, and not less than $25.00 and not more than $250.00 for each additional violation.

ORDAINED AND ENACTED by the Council of the Borough of Seven Fields this 11th day of December, 1995.
