Additional information

Membership on Borough's advisory boards, committees and commissions are open to all interested citizens subject to the qualifications determined by each individual committee, board and commission as necessary for the conduct of its business. There shall be no discrimination of applicants based on race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, marital status, familial status, status as a Vietnam-era or special disabled veteran, or membership in any other group protected by law in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. The Borough of Seven Fields encourages participation in its affairs by all people, especially those who are represented in public involvement.

NOTE: Child abuse clearances and background checks are required for any employee or volunteer with control and oversight of children in the course of their position.

Most advisory boards, committees and commissions require meeting at least once a month and the meeting hours may be evening or day depending on the committee. Some committees also require some investment of time outside of the meetings. Interested applicants are encouraged to attend a meeting of this commission prior to interviewing to serve.

The information requested herein becomes public record upon submittal. A written request to not disclose certain information may be submitted to the City Recorder's Office for consideration.

I certify that the foregoing information is true and correct.
